Charging the Twilight Golf Cup (TWGC)

Prior to initial use, the TWGC should be fully charged to ensure expected illumination time.

- 1. Turn the TWGC over and place the power button into the "Charge" position.
- 2. Remove the protective cover from the TWGC charging port (Figure 1).
- 3. With AC adapter unplugged, plug the charger cable into the TWGC charging port (Figure 2).
- 4. Plug AC adapter into wall outlet. Charger light will be red when charging and green when fully charged.

Installing the Twilight Golf Cup (TWGC)

- 1. Unplug charger and place the protective cover onto the charging port.
- 2. Transport TWGC to the desired installation location.
- 3. Remove existing flag and cup or, using a cup cutter, remove sod and soil (minimum 6-3/8"deep) in a new location.
- 4. Place TWGC power button into the "On" position. LEDs will illuminate.

Caution: The TWGC LED's produce an intense beam of light. Never look directly into the TWGC when the LEDs are illuminated as impaired vision may result temporarily.

- 5. Place TWGC into cup hole.
- 6. Place the included flag into the TWGC, aligning the ball catch blades with the TWGC notches to prevent blockage of the light paths (Figure 3).
- 7. The light illumination of the TWGC will be enjoyed for up to 8 hours.

Removing the Twilight Golf Cup Light (TWGC)

- 1. Remove the flag and TWGC.
- 2. Install standard cup and flag.
- 3. Place TWGC power button into "Charge" position.
- 4. Recharge TWGC as described in the "Charging" section above.

Replacing the Lithium-ion Battery

The Lithium-ion battery has a two-year warranty. Eventually, however, it will need to be replaced. A replacement Lithium-ion battery pack can be purchased from Toro, part TWGC-LIBATT.

- 1. Unscrew the two screws on the bottom of the Golf Cup Light unit. Remove Golf Cup battery compartment lid.
- 2. The Lithium-ion battery pack is attached by two wires to the wires of the Light Cup via a connector (Figure 4).
- 3. Disconnect the battery by unplugging connector.
- 4. Connect the new battery pack and place between the two screw sleeves (Figure 4).
- 5. Carefully install the rest of the wiring into the battery compartment.
- 6. Install the Golf Cup battery compartment lid then reattach with the two screws, making sure that each screw still has its own O-ring.
- 7. Charge the Golf Cup Light for 5 hours or until the indicator on the power supply turns green prior to initial use with a new battery pack.
- 8. Follow your municipal program for recycling or disposing of Lithiom-ion batteries.
