PRO DNA

The same, commercial-grade DNA that pros rely on – like thicker steel, lightning-fast blades, and belts reinforced with bullet-proof material – courses through the veins of every mower we build – giving homeowners with big acreage the same lawn-dominating power, durability, and precision to get the job done quicker and get it done right the first time. The result? A beautiful, professional-looking lawn from a mower that's always ready to work. Designed and engineered in Minnesota, Toro's innovations have been the heart and soul of mowing technology for more than a century.
